

Human Resources Development Policy

Our company recognizes that people are the driving force behind sustainable growth.

Therefore, we engage in the recruitment of diverse human resources without regard to gender, nationality, career, etc., we incorporate various ideas, experiences, and values to enhance each individual's strengths and personality, and we are committed to developing responsible and autonomous human resources who can think and act on their own.

Established June 27, 2023