

Work Environment Improvement Policy

Our company believes that creating a work environment where each individual can work in a rewarding and healthy manner leads to further improvement of individual performance, contributing to our company's sustainable growth as well as medium- to long-term improvements in corporate value.

We will continuously work to provide a work environment and develop diverse human resources policies so that each employee can lead a fulfilling life both professionally and personally, in good physical and mental health, and filled with enthusiasm.

Established June 27, 2023